PUBLIC PROVIDENT FUND

Premature closure of account — (1) An account holder shall be allowed premature closure of his account or the account of a minor or person of unsound mind of whom is the guardian on an application to the accounts office in Form-5, on any of the following grounds, namely:

a) Treatment of life threatening disease of the account holder, his spouse or dependent children or parents, on production of supporting documents and medical reports confirming such disease from treating medical authority;

b) Higher education of the account holder, or dependent children on production of documents and fee bills in confirmation of admission in a recognised institute of higher education in India or abroad;

c) On change in residency status of the account holder on production of copy of Passport and visa or Income tax return;

Provided that an account under this Scheme shall not be closed before the expiry of five years from the end of the year in which the account was opened;

Provided further that on such premature closure, interest in the account shall be allowed at a rate which shall be lower by one per cent, than the rate at which interest has been credited in the account from time to time since the date of opening of the account, or the date of extension of the account, as the case may be.
