HDFC Bank holds Mega Loan Mahotsava at Shirampur

- 150 Gramin Loan Mahotsavas planned across India under the Bank's Rural Campaign –

Shrirampur (Maharashtra), November 29th, 2010: HDFC Bank, one of the premier banks in the country, held a Mega Loan Mahotsava at Shirampur in Maharashtra.

Shrirampur, located in Ahmednagar district of Maharashtra is one of the major producers of sugarcane in the state and also a business centre.

At the Gramin Loan Mahotsava in Shirampur, which is amongst the largest of such events ever held in the district, a variety of loans such as tractor loans, agricultural loans, auto loans and 2 wheeler loans, commercial vehicle loans, and Kisan Gold Cards were given to rural customers. Three day loan Mahotsavas were also held in the nearby villages of Newasa, Rahuri, Rahata and Kopargaon.

HDFC Bank kick-started the Mega Loan Mahotsava under the bank's New Rural Campaign in July 2010 at Pimpalgaon near Nasik in Maharashtra. The Bank is holding a total of 150 Gramin Loan Mahotsavas, small and big, across the country. The states include Gujarat, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Orissa, West Bengal and Punjab.

At the Loan Mahotsava in Shirampur, vehicle keys and cheques were handed over to customers by Mr. Ashok Khanna, Sr. Executive Vice President & Business Head, Auto Loans, HDFC Bank, Mr. Rajan Pental, Executive Vice President & Business Manager, Auto Loans, HDFC Bank and Mr. Abraham Mathew, Zonal Head, Maharashtra, HDFC Bank. Amongst the dignitaries present on the dais were Mrs. Rajashree Sasane, Mr. Deepak Nirmal, Director, Prabhat Dairy, Shirampur and Mr. Bhausahab Kamble, MLA, Shirampur.

Mr. Pralay Mondal, Country Head, Retail Assets, HDFC Bank from Mumbai said, "Welcome changes are sweeping across India, especially in rural India. We are a major financial intermediary in the country today, and it is our earnest endeavour to make a difference to the lives of people residing there by reaching out to them. Shirampur is one of the major producers of sugarcane in the state of Maharashtra and a town that is developing fast. We are committed to partnering our customers in their journey of progress."

Mr. Ashok Khanna said, "Rural India has witnessed remarkable transformation over the past two decades that I've been travelling to these markets. Thanks to a host of factors, better realization for their produce being the primary one, it has helped convert rural India into a huge consumer market. Hence the scope for banks to do business will see new markets opening up and new demand being generated."
