

Our Bank has been adjudged winner in the Gold Shield category at the ICAI Awards for Excellence in Financial Reporting for 2018-19 under the Private Sector Banks (including Foreign Banks) category.

The winners were chosen by a jury chaired by Shri Rajnish Kumar, Chairman, State Bank of India (SBI) and comprising eminent members from various walks of life.

The jury during its deliberations reviewed the accounting practices adopted by participants while preparing their financial statements; the policies adopted for disclosure; and presentation of financial statements; among other information contained in the annual report.

The jury chose winners on the basis of degree of compliance with accounting standards, statutory guidelines, regulations, etc; without considering the financial condition and operating performance of organizations. Gold Shield, Silver Shield and Plaque are awarded to the best, second best, and commendable entries respectively.
