Payment of Interest for delayed collection of Local Cheques

Interest at Saving Bank rate will be paid to the customer on the amount of the clearing instrument and for the period of the delay in case there delay in giving credit beyond the time period mentioned above after the cheque is presented in clearing subject to the cheque being otherwise in order.

The interest shall be paid without any demand from customers. However bank will not be liable for compensation if clear funds are delayed due to unavoidable circumstances like riots, bandh, delay in return presentation by drawee bank, etc.

Payment of Interest for Delayed Collection of Foreign Currency Cheques

Customers will be compensated for delay in collection of Foreign Currency Cheques by way of interest. Such interest will be paid to the customer for cases where there is delay beyond one week of stated collection period, without any demand from customers.

The interest shall be paid on the actual amount that is credited to the customer account on realisation of the cheque, as following:

- Saving Bank rate for the period of delay up to 30 days from the agreed date of realisation
- Where such delay is beyond 30 days interest will be paid at the rate applicable to for term deposit for the respective period (up to 90 days).
- In case of extraordinary delay, i.e. delay exceeding 90 days, interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the corresponding Term Deposit rate

For certain currencies HDFC bank does not have any correspondent bank arrangement for collection. Such instruments are sent on "collection-basis" directly to the drawee bank for collection. Above compensation policy does not cover the same, as there is no definite time period for realisation of such cheques.

5) Immediate Credit of Local cheques during suspension of Clearing.

Whenever clearing house operations are suspended for a prolonged period for reasons beyond the control of authorities, bank customers are put to a great hardships as this affects prompt realization of their cheques that are deposited at banks belonging to the affected areas.

In order to minimize the inconvenience faced by customers and also to maintain good customer service, the Bank will consider to temporarily accommodate customers to the extent possible by purchasing the local cheques / drafts deposited in their accounts for collection.

Special consideration will be shown for cheques drawn by Government departments and companies of good repute as also to demand drafts drawn on local banks. While extending this facility, the bank will take into consideration factors such as credit worthiness, integrity, past dealings, etc to safeguard itself against any possibility of such instruments being dishonoured subsequently.

6) Purchase of local cheques

Bank may, at its discretion, purchase local cheque tendered for collection at the specific request of the customer or as per prior arrangement. Besides satisfactory conduct of account, the standing of the drawer of the cheque will also be a factor considered while purchasing the cheque. All branches will follow the internal guidelines as per the extant delegation of authority given on purchase of cheques.

7) Cheques / instruments lost in transit / in clearing process or at paying bank's branch

In the event a cheque or an instrument accepted for collection is lost in transit or in the clearing process or at the paying bank's branch:

1) The bank shall immediately on coming to know of the loss bring the same to the notice of account holder.

2) The bank would provide all assistance to the customer to obtain a duplicate instrument from the drawer of the cheque like giving a certificate that it was lost etc.

The bank will compensate the customer in respect of instrument lost in transit in the following way.

a) The bank would also compensate the customer for any reasonable charges (upto Rs Five Hundred) that he/she incurs in getting duplicate cheque/instrument upon production of receipt, in the event the instrument is to be obtained from a bank/ institution that would charge a fee for issue of duplicate instrument.
