If the closing balance is less than Rs. 200 (or such other amount as notified from time to time) it must be paid in full. In certain type of cards 'Minimum Amount Due' can be equal to 'Total Amount Due'. Please check the Minimum Amount Due carefully before making the payment to the Bank.

The Due Date for payment (which presently would be approximately 20 days from the Statement date) is the last date by which the payments should reach the Bank. It may be noted that the Due Date is only a convenience to enable Statements to reach the Cardmember and also to provide time to process the Cardmember's payments. Future transactions on the account may be declined if the payment is not received within the Due Date and all transactions will attract service charges from the date of purchase.

The Cardmember's payments will first be applied to all overdue amounts (the oldest due being credited first) in the following order:

- Fees and other Charges
- Interest
- Cash Advances Billed
- Retail Transactions Billed
- Cash Advances Current
- Retail Transactions Current

Payment will be treated as made from the date on which the payments are credited to the Card Account in the ordinary course of business. Payments made by cheque drawn on a location where the Bank does not have a branch will be subject to a processing and handling fee as determined by the Bank from time to time, in addition to Drawee Bank's charges for all outstanding cheques. Generally, payments made in cash or through Direct Banking Channels will be credited to the Card Account within 2 business days, provided, they are made prior to the close of business hours as applicable. Proceeds of payments to the Account such as cheques cannot be used or withdrawn until funds are confirmed as cleared. If, for any reason (whether at Cardmember's request or otherwise) the Bank allows withdrawal or use of the proceeds of the cheque or other such payment before it has been cleared, the Bank will be entitled to debit the Card Account, in the event that the cheque or other such payment is later dishonoured and the Cardmember shall be completely liable to make payments thereof and on account thereof.

Payment towards multiple Card Accounts (held by the same Cardmember or otherwise) cannot be made vide a single cheque. The Bank does not undertake the responsibility of apportionment of such payment as may be desired by the Cardmember.

If the Cardmember is not going to be able to access his/her mail around the period that he/she usually receives the Statement, it would be the Cardmember's responsibility to make arrangements to ensure that at least the Minimum Amount Due reaches the Bank before the Payment Due Date.

The Bank has made arrangements to provide Drop Box facilities at various locations in serviceable cities as determined by the Bank from time to time. The updated list of Drop Box locations may be communicated to the Cardmember as appropriate. The Cardmember is advised to use these Drop Boxes to deposit only locally payable cheques or drafts along with Payment Vouchers/stubs (tear off portion of Statement) duly completed with the cheque details.

Cardmembers are advised not to issue post dated cheques towards card outstanding as the Bank does not in the normal course of operations offer to clear post dated cheques.

Timely payment towards the card dues is essential and it is a condition of this Agreement that all the payments towards Minimum Amount Due must reach HDFC Bank on or before the Payment Due Date indicated in the monthly Statement of Account.

If the Minimum Amount Due is not paid by the Payment Due Date, a late payment fee as specified in the tariff sheet will be debited to the Card Account and is subject to change at the discretion of HDFC Bank.

Non-payment of card dues shall also render the Cardmember liable to risk of instant withdrawal of the Cardmembership without prior notice.

RETURNED PAYMENTS

In case the cheque or any other payment instrument forwarded by the Cardmember is not honoured or must be returned to the Cardmember because it cannot be processed, HDFC Bank reserves the right to proceed legally against the Cardmember and would at its discretion levy a penal fee and/or temporarily withdraw credit facilities on the card. Repeated instances of payment instruments not being honoured could result in cancellation of the Account.

A cheque return fee at the prevailing rate would be levied on the amount of the returned cheque subject to a minimum amount as specified by the Bank from time to time.

The attention of the Cardmember is invited to the provisions of Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 and to the serious criminal penalties therein specified for the dishonour of cheques.

AUTO DEBIT

If the Cardmember has a Current Account or a Savings Account at any of our branches in India, the Bank may at its sole discretion arrange to have any one of these accounts debited automatically every month on the Cardmember's written request.

The Cardmember may note that the Auto Debit facility will not be available on certain classes of Accounts as determined by the Bank from time to time. Accounts currently residing in MicroBanker will not be eligible to participate in this facility.

The Automatic debit will be processed on the registered account nominated by the Cardmember from the Payment Due Date and will be credited to the Card Account. In the event of non-realization of payment in the first attempt, repeat attempts will be made until realization of payment. In the event of non-realisation of payment in the first attempt, repeat attempts will be made until realization of payment.

Cardmember must have sufficient cleared funds in the nominated Savings or Current Account at the time of the debit being processed.

In case the Cardmember has instructed the Bank to clear the Card Account balance fully (i.e., 100% Auto Debit) each month, but the cleared balance available in the nominated Savings or Current Account is insufficient in any month, the Auto Debit service will instead claim only the Minimum Amount Due (if the cleared balance in the nominated Account is sufficient to cover the Minimum Amount Due). Where the Auto Debit service claims the Minimum Amount Due, and the nominated Savings or Current Account does not have sufficient funds to meet the claim, the amount will be reversed to Cardmember's Card Account and the auto pay reversal charges at the prevailing rate would be levied to the Card Account. However, Auto Debit instruction for all subsequent months will continue to be effective as per the original instructions given by the Cardmember. The Bank reserves the right to accept and/or subsequently cancel or not to accept any such instructions.

In case the Cardmember has instructed the Bank to claim for amounts other than the Minimum Amount Due and there is a credit or a payment made to the Card Account before the Payment Due Date, the Bank may at its discretion claim only the residual amount i.e., the difference between the amount outstanding as per the Statement and the payments/ other credits received before the Payment Due Date. The Bank reserves the right to amend its policies with respect to such instructions from time to time.

In case the Cardmember has instructed the Bank to claim for amounts other than the Minimum Amount Due and in the event of non-recovery of funds, the Bank will attempt to recover at least the Minimum Amount Due on the Card Account. In future, the Bank may introduce at its discretion a variable option for Auto Debit facility. Where the Cardmember has opted for a variable amount and the Minimum Amount Due payable on the Card Account is higher than the option exercised, the Bank reserves the right to claim the higher of the two.

If the Auto Debit cannot be claimed for insufficient funds on the recovery date, the Auto Debit reversal charges would be levied irrespective of any other payment/credit made into the Card Account through any other mode other than Auto Debit.

The Bank at a predetermined overdue status would reserve the right to withdraw the standing instructions given by the Cardmember without any prior notice and the facility may not be made available in future.

In a specific case where, subsequent to providing instruction to the Bank to Auto Debit a nominated Account, the nominated Account is closed or transferred to another branch, the Cardmember undertakes to advise the Cards Services Division of the Bank of the change in status of the nominated Account. Please note that the service or penal charges that accrue to the Cardmember's Account because of non-compliance or delay of this advice will not be refunded.

The Bank's ATMs may allow the Cardmember to change the PIN (originally advised by the Bank) to a PIN of choice. The PIN advised to the Cardmember by the Bank is confidential and must not be made known by the Cardmember to anybody. The Bank will not be liable or responsible for any consequences of the Cardmember's valid PIN becoming known to a third party. The Cardmember will be liable for all consequences in the event of any loss due to the misuse of his/her PIN.

If, after memorising the PIN, the PIN is lost or stolen, or if the PIN becomes known to somebody else, and if the card is still in the Cardmember's possession, he/she should immediately advise the Credit Card Division of the Bank. Any delays may expose the Cardmember to the liability of unauthorised use of the card.

Subject to the Card Account being valid, if the card is retained in the ATM, the Cardmember should contact Credit Card Division of the Bank for assistance. A replaced card will be forwarded for a fee as specified by the Bank from time to time.

Any complaint about goods or services must be resolved only with the Merchant concerned. The other payment requisition referred to in this clause shall include any and all payments pertaining to permissible expenses incurred by a Cardmember at a Merchant Partner by use of the card which is not recorded on a chargeslip.

If the Cardmember believes that an error has occurred in the Statement he/she should promptly inform the Bank in writing, (so that the same is received by the Bank within 30 days of the date of Statement in which the transaction under dispute was charged). In case a cardholder protests any bill, Bank will provide explanation and, if necessary documentary evidence to the customer within a maximum period of thirty days from date of complaint. The operating rules applicable under the Credit Card Scheme impose time limits on reporting disputed transactions. In case a cardholder protests any bill, Bank will provide explanation and, if necessary documentary evidence to the customer within a maximum period of thirty days from date of complaint. If the Cardmember does not report/inform the Bank within time, this makes it difficult for the Bank to gather information about the transactions and this may work to the Cardmember's disadvantage. It is therefore advisable to notify the Bank of any disputed transactions immediately upon receipt of the Statement of Account. This includes any disputes regarding Reward Points (if applicable) allocated to the Card Account.

To assist the Bank with its investigations, the Cardmember will need to provide the following information:

- Cardmember name and Card Number
- Details of the transaction in question

Wherever necessary the Bank will contact the Cardmember should it need any further information. Pending the Bank's investigation and correction (if any), the Bank may, at its sole discretion, credit the Cardmember's Account with the disputed amount and debit the appropriate Reward Points (if applicable) till a conclusion is arrived in respect of the dispute. Where, after completion of investigations, the Bank concludes that no error has occurred, the Bank may advise the Cardmember accordingly, and the Account if already credited will be promptly debited for the disputed amount with relevant credit of Reward Points (if applicable) with the original transaction date, and interest will accrue accordingly. If, in the process of investigating the Cardmember's query, the Bank has had to retrieve voucher copies either from its archives or through another bank entity, the Cardmember's Account will be debited for retrieval fees as specified by the Bank from time to time. Amounts due on the transactions including disputed transactions are payable by the Due Date appearing on the Statement of Accounts.

The Courts in Chennai, India, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with all disputes between the Bank and the Cardmember, or the estate of the Cardmember and the Cardmember hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to submit himself/herself to such exclusive jurisdiction.

The Bank will credit the Card Account as appropriate on receipt of the proceeds from the processing Bank. However, any charge/finance charge(s) resulting from delay at any parties' end to process the credit will need to be borne by the Cardmember.
